

February 17, 2010

Dear Parents,

The Portail Staff would just like to inform you that the 2009-2010 year of your child's school year experience at Richland Senior High is halfway over! Remembering those special moments with a yearbook is the best way enjoy it. This is the last call to order a yearbook and we will not be ordering extra yearbooks for students to purchase. To order a yearbook students can go to www.jostens.com and place your order there! The website takes you step by step to ordering your 2009-2010 yearbooks. This is the final call to order a yearbook. There are a lot of memories throughout your child's high school year and a Richland yearbook would make it easy to remember those memories! If you failed to order your yearbook we will not be ordering extra copies so make sure you order one as soon as possible!

Thank You,
Portail Staff

Handwritten signatures of Gregg Wilson and Linda Barto. The signature for Linda Barto is written in a cursive style and is larger than the one for Gregg Wilson.

Gregg Wilson and Linda Barto
Portail Advisors